Special and Annual Town Meeting Articles

Article P: Three tax title properties: It was stated that T. Arsenian, 95 Granite Street, wants to separate the three properties on the Article. B. Visnick said the properties can be split and each can be voted individually.

Selectperson Murphy mentioned the possibility of 59 High Street being used for affordable housing.

Selectperson Sheedy said voter support would be needed down the road for whatever is proposed.

Article H: Bedrock Wells, town meeting voted to appropriate funds for Bedrock Wells several years ago. It's out to bid now; Article H is just the utility easement to the area. The water needs assessment, in process now, is for Flat Ledge Dam. It had been determined that the town needed Bedrock Wells six or seven years ago.

Health Insurance, it was stated that town volunteers who receive stipends being eligible to participate in the town's health insurance plan was voted in approximately 20 years ago. The moderator said we will state the law as it pertains to this issue.

Selectperson Wilkinson said this issue this comes up every two years; we should provide as much information as possible.

R. Visnick said we won't provide information on individual plans and who is enrolled.

Darren Klein said this is not the only town where this issue has come up.
